

JBIMS Admission Process for Non-Maharashtra Students: Cutoffs, Exams, Documents & Complete Guide 2026

Jamnalal Bajaj Institute of Management Studies (JBIMS) in Mumbai is one of the most sought-after B-schools for MBA aspirants from all over India—not just Maharashtra. Every year, just 18 All-India seats (OMS category) give ambitious students from any state a shot at their dream. The competition is intense, but if you're a non-Maharashtra candidate with JBIMS on your radar, this guide will walk you through everything you need to know for 2026.

1. Eligibility Criteria for Non-Maharashtra Students

- Must be an Indian citizen.
- Bachelor's degree (any discipline) from a recognized university with at least 50% aggregate marks (45% for reserved categories).
- Final-year graduation students can apply provisionally.

2. Accepted Exams for OMS/All India Category

Each year, OMS seats in JBIMS are filled using merit lists across a range of leading national exams:

Exam	JBIMS Accepts for OMS?	Cutoff (percentile)
MAH MBA CET	Yes	99.99+
CAT	Yes	99.9+
CMAT	Yes	99.99+
XAT	Yes	~99+
MAT	Yes	~99+
ATMA	Yes	~99+

3. Admission Process Step By Step

a. Appear for One of the Accepted Exams

- Register for MAH MBA CET, CAT, or CMAT, XAT, ATMA, MAT and aim for a 99.99+ percentile (latest cutoff trends).

b. DTE CAP Registration

- After exam results, register for the Maharashtra DTE CAP rounds (Centralized Admission Process) at cetcell.mahacet.org.
- Mention JBIMS as your first preference.

c. Document Upload & Verification

- Mandatory documents include:
 - Bachelor's degree mark sheets & certificate

- Entrance exam scorecard (CET/CAT/CMAT)
- Photo ID (Aadhar/Passport/Voter ID)
- Caste certificate (if applicable) or category proof
- Transfer/Migration Certificate
- Passport-size photos
- Work experience proofs (if claimed)
- DTE registration acknowledgment

d. Merit List and Seat Allotment

- DTE releases merit lists; top scorers for All India seats get offers.
- JBIMS All India cutoff is extremely competitive—99.99+ percentile (140–145 marks in MAH CET).

e. Final Admission Formalities

- Accept seat, pay fee (approx ₹6–7 lakh for MMS, affordable for top IIM-type placements), and report to campus when instructed.

Latest JBIMS Mumbai Cutoffs & OMS Seat Matrix

MMS (Master of Management Studies) Program – All India Category

- Number of All India/OMS seats: 18 (out of total ~150-160 MMS seats; the rest are for Maharashtra state candidates and minorities).
- MAH MBA CET cutoff for OMS (Open/General category):
 - CAP Round 1 (2025): 99.99 percentile.
 - CAP Round 2 (2025): 99.99 percentile (cutoff remains the same as Round 1; small movement is possible but usually not below 99.98-99.99).
 - CAP Round 3: Historically remains at 99.99 or dips marginally to 99.98-99.95 due to seat withdrawals/waitlists, but this is rare and unpredictable.

Other Categories/Observations

- There is no reservation for OBC, SC, ST, EWS, etc. in OMS (All India) quota—these 18 seats are open competition for all non-Maharashtra candidates.
- Cutoffs for Maharashtra state candidates and other reserved categories are lower, but OMS seats always require the highest percentiles in MAH CET, CAT, or CMAT

5. Important Dates

- MAH CET: March/April 2026
- CAT/CMAT: As per national schedule
- CAP Registration: April–June 2026
- Seat Allotment & Reporting: June–July 2026 (tentative)

6. Pro Tips for Non-Maharashtra Aspirants

- If you're in the All India/OMS pool, maximize every attempt to MAH CET/CAT/CMAT with strong speed-based prep.
- Fill JBIMS as your first preference in all CAP rounds.

- Check document formats (degree, category, migration, etc.) well ahead—missing paperwork can void your selection.
- If you're unclear, refer to official DTE CAP and JBIMS websites, or connect with current students/alumni for latest updates.

JBIMS Mumbai opens doors to some of the best careers in the country, with placements that rival the top IIMs. But for nonMaharashtra aspirants, it's a real challenge—every percentile counts, and every mark matters. If you're aiming for JBIMS, start preparing now: practice mock tests, work on your speed, and keep your documents ready. That one extra mark could be what gets you in!
