

JBIMS Admission Scam Exposed: Don't Fall for Fake Promises

Every year, thousands of MBA aspirants dream of getting into top B-schools like Jamnalal Bajaj Institute of Management Studies (JBIMS). But unfortunately, where there are dreams, there are also scammers ready to exploit them.

Recently, a shocking admission scam has surfaced targeting MBA CET aspirants — and it's something every student must be aware of.

What is the JBIMS Admission Scam?

Fraudsters have been contacting students claiming they can guarantee:

- 99+ percentile in MBA CET
- Direct admission into JBIMS and other top colleges
- “Inside connections” with exam authorities

In return, they demand huge amounts — ranging from ₹11 lakh to ₹20 lakh.

These scammers often:

- Use leaked student data to contact aspirants
- Create urgency (“limited seats”, “last chance”)
- Promise results that bypass merit

Reality check: No one can guarantee admission to JBIMS.

How This Scam Was Busted

According to reports, the Mumbai Crime Branch arrested multiple individuals involved in such a racket operating from Delhi.

They:

- Targeted MBA CET aspirants
- Promised fake high percentiles
- Collected large sums of money

Investigations revealed a larger network and even raised concerns about data leaks in the admission ecosystem.

Why Students Fall for It

Let's be honest — the pressure is real.

- Top colleges = limited seats
- High competition (99+ percentile cutoffs)
- Fear of missing out

Scammers exploit:

- Emotional pressure
- Lack of awareness
- Desire for shortcuts

But here's the truth:

There is no shortcut to JBIMS. Only merit works.

Red Flags You Must NEVER Ignore

If anyone tells you:

- "Guaranteed admission in JBIMS"
- "Pay first, seat confirmed later"
- "We have internal contacts"

It's a SCAM.

Experts clearly state that no agent can legally guarantee admission into top colleges.

How to Protect Yourself

Only trust official admission processes (CAP rounds)

Never share OTPs, personal data, or login credentials

Do not pay any "donation" or "processing fee" to agents

Verify every claim from official websites

Final Message to Aspirants

Your MBA journey should be built on:

- Hard work

- Consistency
- Smart preparation

Not shortcuts.

Because even if someone “gets you in,” you won’t survive inside without the skills.
